

HOW DO I REACH ADVAL TECH IN NIEDERWANGEN NEAR BERN?

Traveling by road from Zurich/Basel/ Lucerne/Ticino/Germany/Austria

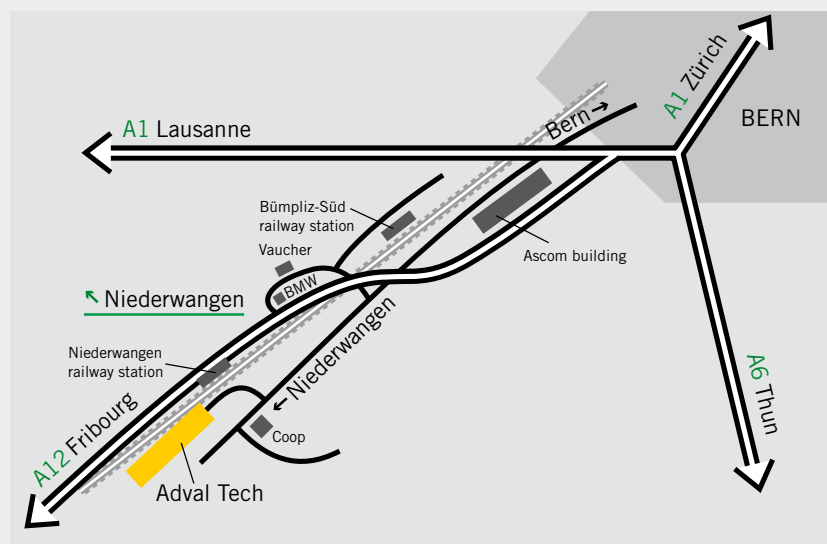

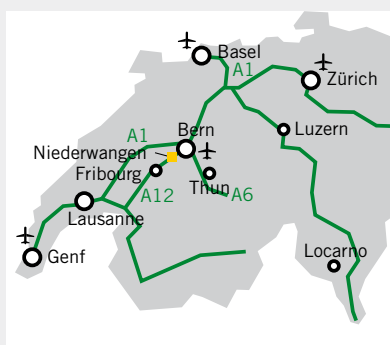

Drive along the A1 freeway in the direction of Bern and at the «Bern-Wankdorf» freeway interchange turn off in the direction of «Fribourg/Genf/Lausanne» (A1). At the «Bern-Weyermannshaus» freeway interchange turn onto the A12 toward Fribourg. Leave the freeway at the Niederwangen exit and turn right toward Bern. Follow the main road (Hallmattstrasse), which bends slightly to the right. Under the freeway bridge turn right toward Niederwangen. Drive straight ahead for 900 meters along Freiburgstrasse. After the highway bridge turn off to the right (signpost for Styner+Bienz).

Traveling by road from Geneva/France

Drive along the A12 freeway in the direction of Bern as far as the Niederwangen exit. Continue as described above.

Traveling by train

You can reach Niederwangen with the «S1» S-Bahn (suburban rapid rail transit) service from Bern main railway station. Go to www.sbb.ch for timetables.
